

Reporting Event Organised
Name of the Event	Awareness Programme on AIDS
Theme	“Let Communities Lead”
Occasion	World AIDS Day, 2023
Date	1 st December, 2023
Venue	College Gate, B. H. College, Howly
Organiser (s)	Red Ribbon Club, B. H. College, Howly
Collaboration (if any)	NSS, B. H. College, Howly.
Sponsorship (if any)	NIL
List of Invitees (Resource Person)	1. Dr. Suruchi Singh, Asstt. Prof., Department of Zoology, B. H. College, Howly 2. Prof. Pranab Debnath, Asstt. Prof., Department of Zoology, B. H. College, Howly
Target Audience	Students, teaching and non-teaching staff of the college irrespective of gender and also the public.
Summary of the Event	Red Ribbon Club, B. H. College, Howly has organised an Awareness and Prevention Programme on AIDS among the students, teaching and non-teaching staff of B. H. College, Howly for a noble and social cause. 133 students and 34 teaching and non-teaching staff have joined the program. Red ribbons were distributed among all the fraternity of B. H. College as a symbol of remembrance and support to the AIDS affected people. This type of awareness programme is very essential for the college student to safeguard them from the ill effects of AIDS and its prevention.
Upload Documents	https://drive.google.com/file/d/1CHbJvNnBZviVOd6xo-0XvofBcw0qrSYL/view?usp=sharing
Expenditure in Rs.	Rs. 1420
Feedback Report (if any)	The program was praised by the respected Principal, student participants and the teaching and non-teaching staff. They said that such program is really necessary to educate them so that preventive measures can be taken before it is spread. Moreover, while travelling back to home wearing the red ribbon; public ask them about the meaning of wearing it. They also awareness by word of mouth communication and spread the information.

